Part II, Line 17a - 10% Facts and Circumstances Test - Current Year

Concept Therapy Institute ("CTI") submits that throughout its existence to date and in the future, it qualifies as a public charity under Internal Revenue Code §509(a)(1) by satisfying the requirements of Regulations §1.170A-9(e)(3) as follows:

(i) Ten Percent Test: CTI has historically and normally can be expected in the future to receive over 10% of its total support from the general public.

(ii) Attraction of Public Support: CTI's mission is education through teaching of live weekend seminars. Due to COVID-19, CTI was negatively impacted and income was severely reduced in the first half of 2020 until CTI could adapt its coursework to an online-based version and educate instructors in effective online teaching options such as Zoom. As a result of decreased program income due to COVID-19, investment and rental comprise a disproportionately large amount of CTI's revenue in 2020. CTI restructured its investments to reduce interest income and is no longer renting facilities to outside organizations in order to focus fully on its mission, adapting to an online platform and increasing program income. CTI has been successful in these endeavors and has thus greatly improved its situation in 2021. Based on financial data to date, CTI expects to pass the 33 1/3 test for 2021 and future years. During 2021, CTI began a concerted effort to follow up with historical donors in order to increase contributions, and the website is targeted at reaching a wide range of new potential donors.

(iii) Percentage of Financial Support: CTI received about 19% of its total support from public sources in 2020. Investment income, rental income and declining program revenue due to COVID-19 have all affected 2020 negatively. However, contributions have remained fairly steady and come from a wide range of members. CTI has been receiving donations for over 50 years and it has responsibly invested those donations to earn investment income. CTI continues to cultivate our public relationships with members as well as outreach programs to draw new members to our educational mission. As a result, CTI has increased program income in 2021 and will now pass the 33 1/3 test as a result.

(iv) Sources of Support: CTI receives support from public customers and adds new customers through outreach and advertising programs on a daily basis. It has a wide and diverse range of contributors across the country, many of which have been contributing to CTI's educational mission for years.

(v) Representative Governing Body: CTI's governing body is composed of 6-9 civic and business leaders at any given time. The Board of Directors is comprised of the organization's more senior membership. No Directors are related to each other or to the original founder of the organization, and none are substantial contributors.

(vi) Availability of Facilities or Services and Public Participation: CTI's base programs, as well as its offices, are open to the public and welcomes visitors on a daily basis. The programs support a diverse public community across the entire USA and CTI is proud to be an equal opportunity organization who is inclusive to all individuals regardless of religion, sexual orientation, age or ethnicity.

Conclusion: CTI believes it qualifies as a publicly supported charity described in IRC §509(a)(1) pursuant to the facts and circumstances test found in Treasury Regulation §1.170A-9(e)(3). CTI has and will receive well in excess of ten percent (10%) of its total support from qualifying public sources.
